What is ISNO?

The Iowa School Nurse Organization (ISNO) is the only specialty nursing organization exclusively serving Iowa school nurses. ISNO's mission is to "support the school nurse in the delivery of health services designed to improve the health and academic success of children".

ISNO benefits school nurses, speaking as one voice by:

- Increasing the visibility of school nursing
- Advocating for manageable nurse to student ratios

ISNO membership offers opportunities to develop professional leadership, confidence, and to enhance practice skills through our educational programs and networking.

Who belongs to ISNO?

ISNO members represent nearly all facets of school health care delivery, including:

School nurses

School nurse practitioners

Private/parochial school nurses

School nurse administrators

School nurse educators
